Can't Help Falling In Love: A story of true love & romance (COVE BAY BOOKS Book 1) Rosie Taylor-Kennedy

When Lisa Lopez discovers her fiance has been cheating on her, her world is turn upside down. With her life in chaos and she flees Cove Bay for New York to live with her friend Charlie for a couple of months to recover.

When she returns to her beautiful home town, things have changed a little - a new baseball team have moved in and set up, and their rather handsome coach is paying her lots of attention. But when her handsome, rich ex-fiance hears she's back, he reappears on the scene and declares he's always loved her and wants her back. But what will Lisa do? Will she be able to reject the advances of Peter - the man she once loved and planned to spend the rest of her life with? Can Matt, the football coach with the warm heart, convince her that he's the one for her? And what about the secret that Matt is carrying around?

Set in beautiful Cove Bay in springtime, this story about a gorgeous, innocent woman who is struggling her way through heartbreak to love again. It will delight and warm your heart.

This is the first in the Cove Bay series about a family of four sisters - all different, but with one thing in common - like all of us - they are looking for true love and real happiness.

"Rosie Taylor Kennedy is the queen of romantic fiction. I cry every time I read her books. With this book, she's got me again!"

"Cove Bay series is lovely. The characters are all so fascinating, and the secrets they are keeping are so deep and life-changing. I love them."
