tratado de la reforma del entendimiento (Spanish edition) baruch spinoza

La importancia del asunto tratado y la gran utilidad del fin que se había propuesto Spinoza, a saber, abrirle al entendimiento el camino más fácil y más directo para el verdadero conocimiento de las cosas. Spinoza elabora el Tratado partiendo de la premisa, “Las cosas tienen su origen en Dios. Las ideas de las cosas tienen su origen en la idea de Dios”. La tarea que se plantea el Tratado: si las cosas en cuanto pueden ser objeto del conocimiento filosófico, han de inferirse de la idea de Dios, sólo puede ocurrir esto en progresar consciente del fundamento a la consecuencia, es decir en la forma de la matemática (desarrollar el conocimiento de las cosas en forma geométrica partiendo de la idea de Dios). El Tratado exige que el conocimiento de todo lo que existe sea deducido de la idea del Ser que es la causa de todo lo que existe, exige que la definición de esta cosa increada excluya toda causa; haga imposible toda duda sobre su existencia y deje deducir de si misma todas sus propiedades.
