What's a witch to do when she refuses to use magic to find love? What if she falls in lust with a man who doesn't believe in the power of magic? Charlotte is a beautiful Wiccan who has her own shop of magical supplies and a matchmaking goddess. Patrick is a straight-laced, non-believer who, in his determination to keep his sister away from the influences of magic and witchcraft, finds himself falling for a witch. Neither can stop the erotic journey they've embarked on but they don't know if they can accept each other's very different lives.

Mary Varnum:

As a college student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this That Kind of Magic can make you really feel more interested to read.
