Gabrielle, Bride of Vermont American Mail-Order Brides Series, Book Fourteen Gabrielle isn't looking for love, but circumstances demand she find a husband immediately. Can she agree to marry the only man who'll accept her terms, even if it means moving to Texas? Boone Dillingham believes a wife will be the solution for his loneliness. Too bad his heart belongs to a woman other than the one he's planning to marry! Boone and Gabrielle are determined to make their marriage of convenience work, but they're both toting a little more luggage than the other one knows about. Could it be that their union is less about convenience and more about having their hearts renewed? Gabrielle, Bride of Vermont is a "sweet" inspirational western historical romance that takes place in 1890.
