The story of the gang continues. Scarlet and Sean prepare for the arrival of their baby. Sean is adamant about getting Scarlet everything she needs, including a new car and a maid. But she isn't exactly happy about either one. The tension continues with Diane until another blow out ensues. Torn, Sean must figure out what to do to keep his family together. Cortland finally opens up to Monnique and tells her the truth about Scarlet. But she doesn't react in a way he expects. Knowing Cortland better than anyone, Monnique asks the question he dreads. Was he in love with Scarlet? The answer will change their relationship forever. Ryan's shop is booming with business. Unable to handle it on his own, he decides to hire employees. The success of the shop is keeping him away from home and Janice. And his woman isn't happy about that. Mike still searches for love in the hope of finding a woman like his brother's wife. And when he meets Cassandra, an accountant for the company, Mike immediately becomes tongue tied. Strong, elegant, and cool, Cassandra immediately captures his attention. For the first time, he asks a woman on a date, and for the first time, he hopes for a second one. Another hilarious and heartwarming installment of the Forever and Always Series.
