Have you ever wondered if angels are protecting you? Read about everyday people who have experienced heavenly encounters, including one that saved a boy's life. Hear astounding stories about the power of prayer. "This is a book about miracles," said Cindy Adkins. "I want people to be aware that they happen every day." Learn why it is helpful to keep a journal to maintain a personal account of spiritual experiences and answers to prayers when they transpire. "This book is about being more keenly attuned to those events and living a life of gratitude," said Adkins. "I receive emails every day from people who have had miraculous answers to prayers. I am always so thrilled when others share their 'miracle' stories with me. They truly touch my heart. I hope that as people read this that they will start to recognize when they receive their own 'hugs from heaven' and live their lives knowing that they exist."

Cindy Adkins is a bestselling author living in New Orleans, Louisiana. She holds a Master's Degree in Humanities from the California State University, Dominguez Hills. "In my graduate work, I was able to study about 'life questions' that have intrigued me for years. But, I find that it is through personal experience that people come to learn about the deeper meaning of existence, including the power of prayer. This book serves to illuminate the subject of spirituality by telling about everyday people who have had heavenly events happen in their lives. It is my hope that readers will get in touch with their own memories of such occurrences that have happened to them personally and share them with others.
