What would you do after being sent to a new country to live an exciting life with your dream man, but then you find that this new life is filled with dark secrets

Annabel never dreamed she would get to marry a handsome, well off, and traveled man like Jason. Her dreams are finally about to come true now that she's flying from Mexico to meet her soon-to-be husband. After being scouted and signed on to a mail order bride service because of her gorgeous curves and soft features, Annabel is hopeful that this will be her escape from a life of abuse. She's been purchased by the groom's parents who seem friendly, welcoming, and enthusiastic.

Unfortunately when she gets to the states, Annabel finds that her new husband is less than thrilled to see her. In fact, he's a drunk Marine who spends his time cooped up in his house when he's not working. Where is the exciting man Annabel saw in the photos?

Should Annabel stick around? She may find herself richly rewarded for her efforts. Or she may wish she never stepped foot in his life!....
