This book is perfect for anyone who's let fear or frustration keep them away from watercolors. Whether they're decorative painters or complete beginners, readers will find that success comes quickly with the complete step-by-step instructions and patterns in this guide.

It's fun and easy to build skills while painting 10 colorful fruit and floral projects designed especially for beginners, including: -Festive poinsettia on a gift box and coordinating tag -Realistic apples on fabric - Beautiful violets on a memory album cover -A garden scene with morning glories and a trellis

In addition to these gorgeous projects, the book includes an introduction to all the basic materials and techniques for watercolors. There are sections on everything from gathering materials to transferring patterns. Painters and non-painters alike will find everything they need to experience the true joy of watercolors!
