“I wish I’d had Parenting from the Overflow when I was raising Franny! A beautiful devotional chock full of excellent advice, creative and comfortable action steps, thoughtful questions to ask yourself and life changing scriptures to contemplate, memorize and apply. It will hold a mirror right up to you, mom. A good mirror that will help you assess what you’re doing right and honestly reveal areas you need to work on. Because we all need work, right? After all, we are continuously growing in grace.” Kate Battistelli, Mother of Christian singer/songwriter Francesca Battistelli and author of Growing Great Kids This parenting gig is hard work! The days are long and the nights can be even longer. Often as moms we find ourselves pulled into the undertow of diaper changes, carpools, and the never-ending laundry pile. In Parenting from the Overflow, Teri Lynne Underwood invites you into this truth: we parent best when we remember we are children of our heavenly Father first. Teri Lynne explores how our lives can overflow with qualities such as love, patience, grace, and courage, all rooted in God’s work in us, not our efforts or abilities. Parenting from the Overflow is practical, encouraging, and filled with honest stories from Teri Lynne’s own journey of learning to lean into God so the overflow of Him pours on to those around her.
