"You think you can handle me, baby?"

Book 3 of Her Husband Watches - The Big Black Lawyer

Powerful business woman Tara loves her husband Sam, a prestigious and soon to be partnered lawyer. However life in their bedroom has become nearly non-existent. Longing for the energy and excitement they once shared, Tara strives to rekindle the fire. Yet for all her attempts, Sam stays disinterested. The feelings and energy Tara keeps bottled up erupts when she meets Daniel, a co-worker of Sam at the law firm. The big black bald lawyer sends shivers down Tara's spine whenever their paths cross. Soon, Tara finds herself in Daniel's embrace and his larger than life manhood within her grasp. She gives into her urges, releasing years of frustration all in front of the bewildered eyes of Sam who happened up on the couple during their moments of passion. While hurt at his wife's betrayal, Sam is also aroused and excited to see Tara in such a state of passion. The weathered lawyer must decide how to act on his feelings. Will the hurt of betrayal or the lust of passion win out and define his relationship with his wife and friend.
