Point Blank Kaily Hart

What happens when a secret crush plot device clashes with a friends to lovers trope? Duh. Point Blank! And sparks, lots of sparks.

No more safe choices. No more watching life pass her by. No more regrets.

It's Lanie Jameson's new mantra, or it would be if she had the guts to pull it off. Lanie's harbored a secret crush on bad boy Rex Harper for longer than she can remember. And there's no time like the present, right?

When Rex sees Lanie again he knows nothing's changed—he still wants her in his bed. Lanie's got the same idea—to fulfill a fantasy long overdue—except Rex doesn't want the fantasy to end. He wants it to be real. For good. He just has to convince Lanie to give him a chance beyond her point-blank proposition.

"An arousing read for when you want something quick and dirty!"

- Night Owl Reviews

"Sex scenes are hot and frequent and the outcome more than satisfying. If you love stories about old acquaintances reconnecting...or connecting for the first time, this is probably a good pick for you."

- Long and Short Reviews

"...this book felt like a much longer book, and all in good ways. There's a surprising amount of back story and what feels like a more involved story than in some short stories."

- The Romance Studio
