Following a series of brutal attacks at her British Columbia university, and fearful of the strange premonitions that plague her, Josephine abruptly returns to England and the grandmother who raised her. She cannot dismiss the handsome face, the haunting eyes, or the disturbing feelings that are stirring deep inside.

So many questions from her past remain unanswered, and she is compelled to return to Africa, where her parents were ravaged by wild animals. It's time to seek answers.

Driven to protect the young woman from a shared past only he remembers, Ashling follows Josephine across continents. For his entire life, time has had no meaning; with her decision to return to Africa, time is of the essence.
