Set in the early '80's in a small American coastal town, an oppressed teenager with a flair for the mystique is cast into a world of sex, love, and illusion. Seeking the lesser of two evils, she's the unwitting victim of child trafficking and a spiritual slaughter. An escape gets her placed into a psychiatric center, and once there, she's the target of a sociopath's affection, who later steals an experimental drug in order to perpetrate rape. Brainwashed, dark fragments of memory wreak havoc, and she petitions God with prayer, asking for a resolution. Mysterious Blue Heaven is her answer. This diabolically clever work is an account of memory not yet recovered - a complete undoing of the mind - from madness to mayhem, and back again! *Advisory - Graphic content.
