Sharpshooters And Sermons: The Parables Of Wrestling And Religion Darren Kane

A thought provoking and inspiring journey through the history of wrestling, intertwining those stories with the principles of Christianity, the book aims to show how Wrestling and Religion are more alike than you may think. Learn how Shawn Michaels and Stone Cold Steve Austin showed the power of forgiveness. Examine the relationship between Bret Hart and Vince McMahon, and how Judas and Jesus share some of the same characteristics. Understand how a wrestling match and a sermon in Church are constructed in similar ways, and come to see what really matters in life. All this and much much more in this intriguing one of a kind book. Forewords by legendary Scottish wrestler 'Bravehart' David Low and former Dundee Stake President, Paul Clancy.
