The 3000 Year-Old Guide to Parenting: Wisdom from Proverbs for Today's Parents Wes Haystead

As a parent today, you don't need just another writer's opinion on how you should raise your children. What you need is advice that has stood the test of millennia! This is NOT the latest advice on parenting. You'll find the Bible's timeless wisdom in The 3,000-Year-Old Guide to Parenting. Written by one of the wisest men who ever lived, the book of Proverbs provides guidance on every aspect of raising healthy, happy and self-confident children. Understanding King Solomon's memorable sayings will help you: --respond properly when your child misbehaves; --effectively and lovingly teach your children; --determine if and when to use "the rod"; --develop healthy family relationships; --build positive and lasting values; --identify the true goal of life and parenting. Don't experiment on your children with new advice. Base your parenting directly on the Bible, with The 3,000-Year-Old Guide to Parenting.
