Reality TV just got real in this Cinderella story about a factory worker and a CEO's son . Jennifer Wright is finishing a long shift on the assembly line at Brickman Foods when she meets her newest trainee, Jason Baxter-only that's not his name and she knows it. She recognises him instantly as Jared Brickman, internationally renowned playboy and son of the CEO of Brickman Foods, working undercover to film the reality show, Joe Average. Jared is also the father of Jennifer's son, Chris, although he doesn't know it. The six years since they dated have been momentous for Jennifer, but it's clear when they meet again that Jared doesn't even remember her. Jennifer knew Jared the boy-irresponsible and reckless. Now she has the opportunity to discover Jared the man. She'd like to tell him about his son, but fears his reputation as depicted in celebrity magazines. Is Jared an infamous heartbreaker, or is he the man she sees now: sweet, shy, and dependable-someone who can be trusted in her son's life.and maybe even her own?
