Franklin and Debbie are siblings who are very close. When Franklin falls off a deep hole while playing with Debbie, it triggers a series of events and strange emotions in both the kids. As they grow up, these feelings mature and develop into something romantic and serious for both of them. Both are ashamed of what they are feeling, but cannot resist the pull of their hearts. Their emotions are so strong and they are pulled together regardless of how they fight it. But they both know their relationship cannot last and Debbie plans on a strange way to stop their feelings from going any further.
