Hidden Hollywood Gold: 15 More Classic Films You May Not Have Seen, But Should Rupert Alistair
"The author always inspires me to seek out little known cinematic gems. For newcomers to Mr. Alistair's books, you will be delighted with his descriptions and recommendations. He is so enthusiastic and always knowledgeable."

The third in the series of books on the Golden Age of Hollywood and lesser known movies from the era that film lovers may not have seen, but should. Like the two previous volumes, this edition covers a wide variety of classic movies including comedy, mystery, melodrama, social drama, suspense and more!

With examples of work by great directors from Jean Renoir and Mitchell Leisen to Cecil B. DeMille and so many in between. These movies, once very big at the box office, have been forgotten by many, not seen often enough by others. Give the films a try. Give the book a try and learn the behind the scenes tidbits along with Alistair's fun and interesting take on the films themselves.
