FLYMF's Greatest Hits James Seidler, Nick Holle

For more than three years, FLYMF.com rattled the internets with works from dozens of burgeoning humorists. The monthly publication broke new ground by steadfastly refusing to call itself a "Zine." And its stories, essays, comics, and movies covered the gamut of hilarity, from the clever and the witty to the ironic and patently absurd, while never missing the opportunity for a well-intentioned poop joke. Collected here are the finest contributions from 24 writers spanning the toddler-long history of the magazine. With no subject off limits, no wise left uncracked, and plenty of words worth a trip to Hell, these hits wax hilarious on sign language, HPV, Snapple, ghosts, hijackings, Matt Damon look-alikes, Nigerian e-mail fraud, dead teeth, turkey raping, and looking past Don McLean's greatest hit.
