It's summer once again on Nantucket and, as usual, love is in the air...along with plans for a wedding. But the journey up the aisle looks to be far from smooth sailing for Island washashore Joe Thornton and his fiancé Janelle. As they prepare for their big day, the couple find themselves in the crosshairs of a local councilwoman intent on quashing the plans of the bride-to-be to open an art studio for disadvantaged children. Even more distressing are the bureaucrat's attempts to prevent Joe from rebuilding Drury House, Janelle's family home. When an enigmatic stranger offers his help, it seems that he might hold the key to forestalling the vindictive town official's aggression, if it doesn't provoke her into all-out war first. An adopted trio of comedic canines and the visit of a temperamental actress only serve to add to the pre-ceremony havoc. Fortunately for Joe, he has the love of a good woman, the support of an entire island, and a renewed faith in both second chances and second winds. But, still, will even that be enough to make it to the altar unscathed?
