Business Frontiers: Social Responsibility, Sustainable Development and Economic Justice Wayne Visser

Special advisor for KPMG in South Africa, professional writer, speaker, and consultant on business transformation and personal inspiration, Wayne Visser presents his latest book on businesses that have been forced to become accountable to society. He focuses on three chief areas where companies should devote their energies to bring about a transformation-environmental sustainability, economic justice and social responsibility in order to survive and thrive. With power shifting from boardrooms to communities, the new corporate buzzword is sustaining the environment.
