The Dark and the Light Side of the Moon is a novel, based on fact, about two people from two different worlds who experience the joys and sorrows of human life. Both individuals question whether they will ever find happiness because of the unbelievable tragedies that occur early in their lives. The two main characters, George and Virginia, find that courage, standing by convictions, and looking for the bright side of life, go a long way to overcome the horrendous dark side. This is a highly charged epic, filled with emotion—sad, happy, funny and appalling.
