The Garden Path: The Miseducation of a City Andre Perry

Idealistic professor Dr. Isaac Boyd quickly ascends to the forefront of the post-Katrina charter school movement, which unsympathetically takes control of failing schools from the hands of local community leaders. Tensions rise as out-of-town reformers and local community members compete for resources and authority. While adult battles reach a fever pitch, high school students Loren Wise and Katura Price set their own paths to improve schooling for New Orleans.
