Set in modern Japan, this beautiful short story is packed with action. But amid the fighting, the question of being human is explored in depth. The story explores challenging issues, like the value mortality and meaning of being human. Mortality, hunger and friendship are found in the well developed characters. In addition to Grey Butler, we are introduced to Doctor Professor, Death Plum, Lord Paw Paw and the mysterious Young Charge.

Will the evil Vegan Empire prevail? Or will Grey Butler find a way to overcome impossible odds? Breathtaking scenery makes this short story unforgettable. Over a dozen illustrations. Join Grey Butler on a stirring adventure!

The author is a trained lawyer who quickly realized he wasn't cut out for the practice of law. After a 15 year hitch in the real estate title insurance business, Gregory now serves the poor as a welfare case worker. As a teen, he was a competitive rifle shooter, and won several national championships. At the age of 14, Gregory was invited by the U.S. Army to participate in a study of civilian marksmen with long range sniper capabilities, finishing 2nd overall. In addition to writing, he enjoys fly fishing, fly tying and spending time with his family. Gregory graduated with a bachelors degree in political science from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, and a juris doctor degree from Duquesne University School of Law. He lives with his wife and daughter in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.
