I Am Giving Back To You Pleasant Dreams

I love the way that Deal makes me feel. I love how he holds me close and whisper those three letter words, I love you. I like the way he strokes my hair. I like the way that he looks in my eyes and stair. He makes me feel as if I am alive. He walked right in and I realize. He is the man who will love me for who I am. He came to Andros and I knew he was the one. He is my love, my best friend and my prayer partner. He shows me true love because of our chemistry. We do a lot of things on the family island where I am from. He and the other missionaries came to help everyone. He appreciates the simple things of life. He is a Christian who was looking for a wife. I was mesmerized by the love I felt. I know that we should be together and with no one else. Deal met Pleasant in Andros. They had a brief courtship. He went home to Jacksonville. He reconnected with her at Mega Fest. When he met her the second time, he pursues the women of his dreams. Their relationship extends from Andros to Jacksonville to Atlanta and to New Providence. This couple worked out a plan to get married and to stay married despite the fact that they are worlds apart. Romance is what makes a relationship work. We have to communicate. We have to connect. We have to be intimate. Most important of all we have to love each other and this love must be reciprocated.
