LOVE LIKE A HURRICANE is a closely plotted foray into family secrets, lies, and betrayals. It is the story of a hurricane that weaves together the sins of a man in Florida with the secrets of two families that live a thousand miles away. And it is a love story. The story of a passionate romance between Lettie, whose idyllic childhood started with an unfortunate birth and a fatal car crash, and Christine, whose tragic and ultimately violent past simmers just under her skin. A broken promise and a box of long hidden letters shatter the illusion of Lettie's perfect family. As the past unravels, the crushing cost of keeping a secret, and the transformative power of the beautiful and terrible truth are revealed. Told in short and multilayered chapters, LOVE LIKE A HURRICANE finishes with a deeply intimate and stunning climax. Fast paced and compelling, it is a great book club discussion starter.
